Our Tribute to Nelson Mandela- A great social reformer

Nelson Mandela will be remembered by all for bringing an end to the inhuman system of apartheid in his country that denied people equal rights. A political prisoner kept in Robben Island for 27 years, he emerged from the prison in 1990 and led the Republic of South Africa to democracy with a message of reconciliation, tolerance, love and hope.

He became the first President of South Africa elected through democratic nation-wide elections and won the Nobel Peace Prize. A wise and humble person who became an iconic figure, he was considered a father to his nation and was widely respected and adored. Nelson Mandela believed in a free society and fought for its so every person could live together in harmony with others and with equal opportunities.

ICSW Board Meeting in the Netherlands

The International Council on Social Welfare (ICSW) held a joint meeting of the Board & Managing Committee at Leiden, the Netherlands on 18th and 19th November 2013. The Board meeting attended by the regional Presidents provided an opportunity for policy review of the ICSW activities around the world, namely in the 9 regions covering 83 countries where ICSW operates. The Board also discussed at length potential strategy options for future activities of the ICSW, including the ICSW role in promoting social protection schemes at the global and regional levels, and particularly promotion of the Social Protection floor initiative (SPFI). The input of the ICSW in organizing the joint global Conference of ICSW-IFSW-IASSW in Melbourne, Australia in July 2014 was also discussed.

President Michael Cichon in his opening remarks emphasized new opportunities that the NGO community, including ICSW, has in the context of the ongoing global negotiations on the post 2015 development agenda at the UN. The outcome of the discussions will play a crucial role in development policies for the next one and half decade. Active in several key areas of social development at the national, regional and global levels, the ICSW has been one of the founding members of the Global Coalition for the Social Protection Floors and adopted the SPFI as one of its core policies. The observer status that ICSW enjoys with the UN, the ILO, UNICEF, UNESCO and WHO is important, providing an opportunity to address a global audience and also cooperate with numerous other stakeholders. ICSW has been actively involved in organizing the Civil Society Forum traditionally convened at the UN HQ in New York prior to the meeting of the Commission for Social Development. The Executive Director Sergei Zelenev in his remarks provided a review of the most pressing global policy challenges that ICSW faces and suggested new approaches in several areas (e.g. revamping the Website, establishing regional Newsletters where they are lacking, improving visibility, promoting research activities). The Board also reviewed the financial situation of the ICSW, the elections modalities and succession planning in the regions.

India - International Conference on achieving literacy for all

A three day International Conference on achieving literacy for all with a focus on effective, innovative approaches to scale up literacy, reduce gender disparity and create a literate world was organized by the National Mission Authority along with UNSECO at India Habitat Centre in New Delhi from 18th – 20th July. This conference was attended by representatives from most of the South Asian Countries.

The literacy rate of India is 73% as per 2011 census. To achieve the world goal of 80% literacy by 2015, the Human Resource Ministry is restructuring the entire adult education system in India with a paradigm shift to life long education. More than 700 million people globally do not know reading, writing and arithmetic and most of them are in India, China, Pakistan and Bangladesh.
